

VOL. LXXII.—NO. 135.

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, JANUARY 13, 1905.—Copyright, 1905, by The Sun Printing and Publishing Association.

WILL FIGHT FOR RATE BILL.

THE PRESIDENT DECIDES NOT TO FORCE TARIFF ISSUE.

But He Is All the More Determined to Have Some Action on the Railroad Question and Is Likely to Be Confronted With Strong Party Opposition in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—With the knowledge that President Roosevelt regards the tariff as the most important question of the day, as expressed through the informal polls of Republican members of the House of Representatives, a tariff revision bill is being prepared by the President's committee on tariff revision, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

take up the question in executive session with a view to preparing a bill that will conform to the ideas of the committee. Chairman Hepburn remarked that such a motion as Mr. Dacey hinted at could only be made in executive session. He thought it would be well to postpone making it until the meeting of the committee tomorrow. Mr. Hepburn apparently had a well defined idea as to what the suggestion meant, and he did not intend to permit the Republican majority to be forced to take action before it had had an opportunity of deciding what it should do.

The hint of the Louisiana member is regarded as a notice to the members of the committee who are satisfied with the Cooper-Quarles bill allowing the Interstate Commerce Commission to fix rates, which are to stand unless reversed by the courts, will insist upon action in a very short time. The shunting of the indirect motion indicates, it is believed, that the opponents of the bill will insist that the question of what kind of a bill, if any, shall be reported must be decided by the Republican members of the committee without help from the Democrats.

In the talks which Republican members of the House had today regarding the tariff revision bill, it was pretty well developed that while there is considerable sentiment favorable to the President's policy, an attempt to force the issue will produce a sharp division in the Republican ranks. Representative Hepburn, the chairman, and Representative Mann, a member of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, are firmly of the opinion that the Quarles-Cooper bill does not provide the means desired by the President to carry out his ideas, and they hold that it would be ruinous to shippers. Mr. Mann is emphatic in his belief that the shippers do not want it.

Representative Williams of Mississippi, the Democratic leader, to-day introduced an amended copy of a bill offered by him at the last session. It authorizes the Interstate Commerce Commission to change unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory rates to what it considers reasonable and just rates. The changed rates are to go into effect twenty days after action by the commission and remain in effect until changed by the courts, if an appeal is taken.

A conference was held at the Department of Justice today to consider the pending tariff revision bill. The conference was attended by the President's committee on tariff revision, and it was held in the presence of the President's committee on tariff revision. The conference was held in the presence of the President's committee on tariff revision.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

The President's committee on tariff revision, which was organized last September, has been working steadily on the bill, and it is expected that it will be introduced in the House of Representatives at an early date. The bill is expected to be a comprehensive one, covering all the tariff schedules, and it is expected that it will be a landmark measure.

RUSSIA COMPLAINS OF CHINA

THAT NEUTRALITY HAS BEEN CONTINUOUSLY VIOLATED.

The Powers Have Failed to Prevent Them, Says a Circular to the Nations, So Russia Reserves Right to Act as Sees Best—Anti-European Agitation Serious.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 12.—Russia has sent a circular to the foreign Governments enumerating a series of alleged Chinese violations of neutrality during the war, the efforts of the Powers having failed to prevent them.

The circular predicts that the violations will continue, as China is unable to fulfill her obligations. In these circumstances Russia reserves the right to act in her own interests respecting China's neutrality.

The circular concurrently calls the attention of the Powers to the anti-European agitation in China, which, it says, has created a serious situation.

LONDON, Jan. 13.—A despatch to the Times from Shanghai says that the Russian sailors whose punishment for killing a Chinaman the authorities have long tried to procure will be tried by court-martial at the Russian consulate Friday.

The Viceroy, who is entirely unable to appreciate the position and duties of China as a neutral, requested the senior consul to obtain the trial of the men before a mixed court in the presence of a Chinese assessor. The Russian consul declined, as such a course is not accorded by treaty, whereupon the Taotai intimated that China would possibly refuse further protection to Russian warships.

RUSSIAN GENERALS SAIL TO-DAY

For Nagasaki, but They Probably Won't Go on Shore in Japan.

TOKYO, Jan. 12.—Gen. Stossel and his family and Gen. Fock and his family will sail to-day for Nagasaki on the steamer Ogura Maru. They are expected to arrive Saturday.

They probably will not leave the transport until the arrival of the Australian steamer on which they will sail for home.

ALLENBY NOT TO FIGHT WHITE

Will Abandon Political Struggles—Czar May Revive Office of Chief Minister.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 12.—The reported retirement of the title of Admiral of Honour of the Russian fleet upon Admiral Alexieff and his journey abroad are regarded here as meaning that he has abandoned the idea of a struggle with M. Witte in the Council of Ministers.

The probability that the Czar will revive the title of Chief of the Supreme Committee of Ministers, last held by Alexander II's Minister, Loris Melikoff, is being discussed. It is a position resembling that of the Imperial Chancellor of Germany and includes in its duties the general direction of foreign affairs.

PROPERTY THE RUSSIAN LOSE

Inventory of Forts, Ships and War Supplies Surrendered at Port Arthur.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—Cablegrams received at the Japanese Legation state that an inventory of the property surrendered to Gen. Nogai at Port Arthur by the Russians has been completed. The list follows:

Permanent forts, 59 guns, 546, whereof 54 were of large calibre, 149 of medium calibre and 343 were small calibre; shells for large guns, 82,760; ammunition for small arms, 30,000 kilos; rifles, 55,252; horses, 1,920; battle ships, 4, not including the Sevastopol, which is entirely sunk; 20 torpedo boat destroyers, 10 steamers, 10, and small steamers, launches, 82, 35, the latter being usable after slight repairs.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Telegrams from Tokyo add to the list of spoils taken at Port Arthur, as given out by the Japanese Legation, 2,225,000 rounds of small arm ammunition, 80 torpedoes, 1,288 explosive charges, 930 ammunition wagons and carts, 149 sets of telegraph and telephone apparatus, 14 searchlights, and quantities of swords, pistols and trenching tools. It is remarked that the captures prove the idea that a shortage of ammunition contributed to the surrender of the fortress.

Gen. MacArthur to Accompany Jap Army.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

TOKYO, Jan. 12.—The War Office has issued a notification that permission has been granted Major-General Arthur MacArthur of the United States Army, attending by one aide-de-camp, to accompany the Japanese army in Manchuria. Two British Generals are already accompanying the army.

BULKELEY TO BE SENATOR.

Ex-Governor Wins the Contest for Hawley's Seat in One Ballot.

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 12.—Ex-Gov. Bulkeley won the contest for Hawley's seat in the United States Senate, to succeed Senator Joseph R. Hawley on March 4 next. The vote in caucus was by roll call, which the Bulkeley majority won by a large margin.

One ballot settled the matter. Gov. Bulkeley received 154 votes to 73 for Fessenden, 9 for Congressman E. J. Hill of Norwalk, and 8 for ex-Gov. George P. Martin of Simsbury. Mr. McLean declined to permit the use of his name and urged his friends to vote for Bulkeley. Mr. Hill was actively in the contest.

On motion of Mr. Fessenden, who is a member of the State Senate, the nomination was made unanimous, and later when Gov. Bulkeley was called to the hall, Mr. Fessenden led three cheers for him. Gov. Bulkeley is president of the Aetna Life Insurance Company, and was elected Governor of the State in November, 1888, taking his seat in January, 1889. Two years later the election of State officers was held, and Bulkeley was elected Governor. He was re-elected in 1892 and 1896.

It was in the early part of his holdover term that he used a crowbar to force open the door of the executive chamber, which had been locked against him. He was then elected Governor. He was re-elected in 1892 and 1896.

SITE FOR THE ALL NIGHT BANK.

Oakleigh Thorne Buys a Corner of Fifth Avenue and 44th Street.

The choicest part of the old Parson Stevens property at the southeast corner of Fifth avenue and Forty-fourth street was bought yesterday by Oakleigh Thorne, president of the North American Trust Company, from the Century Realty Company and the United States Realty and Investment Company. It is understood that the site will be used for a handsome building to be occupied exclusively by the proposed First Night and Day State Bank.

Mr. Thorne, who is interested in the bank, said last night that he had acquired the corner as a personal investment. The building, which is to be a first class one, will be a landmark on the street, and it is expected that it will be a success.

MORE POLICE UPTOWN.

Twenty-five Temporary Plain Clothes Men for West Side; Ten for East.

Police Commissioner McAdoo announced today that he had ordered twenty-five plain clothes men for the West Side and ten for the East. The men are to be used for the purpose of keeping the streets clean and orderly.

The Commissioner said that the men are to be used for the purpose of keeping the streets clean and orderly. The men are to be used for the purpose of keeping the streets clean and orderly.

BANKRUPT ALTHOUGH RICH.

C. W. Reed, Heir to $5,000,000, Can't Pay the $675,000 That He Owes.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 12.—Though able to show that at some time in the near future he will have an estate valued at $5,000,000, C. W. Reed, heir to the fortune of the late C. W. Reed, is unable to pay the $675,000 that he owes to his creditors.

Reed is the only son of the late Gen. H. W. Reed of Erie, Pa., who was a wealthy man. Reed is now a resident of Pittsburgh, and he is unable to pay the $675,000 that he owes to his creditors.

IMPORTER INDICTED.

Pinkus Accused of Trying to Smuggle and to Bribe a Customs Inspector.

FREDERICK S. PINKUS of 70 East Fifty-sixth street, and of the firm of Jaffe & Pinkus, 103 Franklin street, has been indicted by the grand jury for trying to smuggle and to bribe a Customs Inspector.

Pinkus is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and he is a resident of New York. He is accused of trying to smuggle and to bribe a Customs Inspector.

REAR PRESSING CHARGE OF UNWARRANTED ARREST IN DIAMOND PIN CASE.

The case of Plainclothes Man Stinson Melvior, who is accused by Charles A. Roehr of having falsely arrested him on a charge of stealing a diamond stud from an unknown man on a Sixth avenue car on Nov. 24, is being tried today by Judge DeLoach.

Melvior insisted in his testimony that he pressed Roehr to support him. Roehr pressed his charge vigorously.

The case was not concluded yesterday. Deputy Commissioner Landley is to hear testimony from Justice Wyatt, who appeared at the police station on the night of Roehr's arrest, and from Capt. Cottrell, Melvior's precinct commander.

OPTION ON INTERBOROUGH.

STATEMENT THAT LOCAL BANKING INTERESTS HOLD IT.

That It Covers the Rothschild-Beimont Holdings; That the Price Is $200, and That Holders of Option Are Friendly to Metropolitan-Merger Prospect.

In connection with the recent remarkable rise of the stock of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, which is now 100 per cent. over the price at which it was selling about a year ago, it was said on excellent authority yesterday that banking interests in this city had secured an option on the Rothschild-Beimont holdings of Interborough, which, of course, carry control at the price of $200 a share from the local market.

Interborough stock sold in the curb market to 102 yesterday, which makes a rise of 21 1/2 points in the stock since Saturday last.

It has been known in Wall Street in well informed quarters for many months that as much as a year ago steps were taken looking to the acquisition of the Rothschild holdings of Interborough stock. It was understood that it was for this purpose that Alfred Skitt, who was formerly connected with the Manhattan Elevated, and who has long been prominent in traction affairs, visited London; but no definite statement as to the results of any negotiations has heretofore been made public.

It was suggested yesterday that the Hudson Companies, which was recently formed to take over the McAdoo tunnel system under the Hudson River, might be the vehicle through which the purchase of the Interborough would be accomplished, but that this was the case was authoritatively denied last night. The information regarding the option was that it had been obtained by interests which were not friendly to the Metropolitan Street Railway system and that if the option were carried out, as seemed to be expected, the final outcome of the situation will be a merger of the various traction systems. It was impossible to secure absolute confirmation of this report, but it is understood that the option is held by interests of the most deeply concerned, but the authority upon which the report is based is excellent.

It was learned yesterday that the bankers financing the Hudson Companies, Harvey Fisk & Son, had made a first call on the stock of the Hudson Companies amounts to $21,000,000 and the call made yesterday was for $4,000,000 cash. It is expected that the permanent organization of the Hudson Companies will soon be effected.

SORRY HE MARRIED THEM.

The Rev. E. Y. Hill Regrets His Part in McKee-Tevis Wedding in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 12.—"I'm heartily sorry that I was asked to perform the marriage ceremony," said the Rev. E. Y. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in explaining his part in the secret ceremony that united A. Hart McKee and Mrs. Cornelia Baxter Tevis here yesterday. Not until this morning did the clergyman learn that the bridegroom was the young Pittsburgh millionaire and that the bride had figured in incidents that had gained notoriety for her.

"I have only been in Philadelphia a short time," said Mr. Hill, "and I was surprised when Mr. McKee sought me out yesterday morning and asked me to perform the marriage ceremony. I had no suspicion when I reached the hotel, but the party was of such evident standing that I thought they were foolish."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 12.—The news that Hart McKee and Mrs. Tevis had married yesterday in Philadelphia caused little surprise among acquaintances of Mr. McKee here. They had been to expect that the couple would marry within an hour after news reached them of the divorce being granted to Mrs. McKee in Pittsburgh.

In this connection there came out here a story of how the haste of McKee to wed the Denver widow was practically his undoing here. Within an hour after the decree of divorce had been handed down by Judge Evans, on last Monday, a messenger from the local firm of attorneys doing McKee's business appeared in the city and asked for a transcript of the divorce proceedings.

There was some delay until McKee could be again communicated with regarding the transcript, which must be paid before the transcript could be given. McKee said to pay the costs, get the papers and rush to Pittsburgh.

In the confusion the newspapers heard of the story, which was intended to be suppressed as had been the filing of the divorce proceedings.

Hart McKee had paid his former wife $300,000 some time ago when she agreed to a divorce, one stipulation being that the testimony should not be made public, but his own blundering made publicity possible.

IMPORTER INDICTED.

Pinkus Accused of Trying to Smuggle and to Bribe a Customs Inspector.

FREDERICK S. PINKUS of 70 East Fifty-sixth street, and of the firm of Jaffe & Pinkus, 103 Franklin street, has been indicted by the grand jury for trying to smuggle and to bribe a Customs Inspector.

Pinkus is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and he is a resident of New York. He is accused of trying to smuggle and to bribe a Customs Inspector.

Pinkus is a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and he is a resident of New York. He is accused of trying to smuggle and to bribe a Customs Inspector.

KING EDWARD TO VISIT CANADA.

Plans Trip With the Queen Some Time This Year. Announces Montreal Mayor.

MONTREAL, Quebec, Jan. 12.—Mayor Laporte announced to-night that he had received private advices from England that King Edward and Queen Alexandra are contemplating a visit to Canada some time this year.

PLATT-ELIAS COMPROMISE?

A Rumor of It, but Latest Bulletin Is That Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

The trial of John R. Platt's suit to recover $685,000 from his negro mistress, Hannah Elias, was put off again yesterday when it was called before Supreme Court Justice Bischoff. It was rumored in the afternoon that a conference was in progress between Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonyne, Mrs. Elias's lawyers, and Warren & O'Brien, Platt's legal advisers, which might result in a compromise. The last bulletin, however, was that the trial would surely proceed on Tuesday morning.

GREGORY DISABLED?

Craft Like Her Put in Greenport After Having Hough Time Off Montauk.

GREENPORT, L. I., Jan. 12.—A craft supposed to be the torpedo boat Gregory, but over the price at which it was selling about a year ago, it was said on excellent authority yesterday that banking interests in this city had secured an option on the Rothschild-Beimont holdings of Interborough, which, of course, carry control at the price of $200 a share from the local market.

Interborough stock sold in the curb market to 102 yesterday, which makes a rise of 21 1/2 points in the stock since Saturday last.

LIPTON'S HUNT FOR A DESIGNER.

Confers With the Denny's at Glasgow With- out Reaching Decision on Cup Boat.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Sir Thomas Lipton was in Glasgow to-day. He conferred with Denny & Bros., the shipbuilders, and several other yacht experts. He was interviewed and stated that he desired to issue a challenge for the America's Cup, if he could find any one to design a promising yacht.

He said he had been in communication with the New York Yacht Club with a view to having the conditions of the race amended, but had not succeeded. No decision was reached as the result of Sir Thomas's visit to-day.

REMARKABLE MUSCLE CONTROL.

Berlin Medical Society Inspects Man Who Does Strange Stunts With His Body.

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—Dr. Bergmann introduced to the Berlin Medical Society to-day a man possessing remarkable control of his muscles, which he is able to move independently without affecting the remainder of his body. He shifts his intestines within the abdominal cavity, giving his body the most peculiar shapes.

He stops his pulse, moves his heart from side to side, causes muscle ripples to run over his body and shakes the isolated muscles like jelly. Dr. Bergmann and other physicians examined him under the X-ray, but were unable to discover the cause of the man's peculiar power.

JACK CHINN PULLS A GUN.

Abused a Man by Mistake and Was Struck for It—Colonel Under Arrest.

HANCOCK, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Col. Jack Chinn, the noted Kentucky turfman and Democratic nominee for State Senator from this district was placed under arrest here this afternoon on a warrant charging him with breach of the peace and carrying a concealed weapon.

Col. Chinn went into a saloon here last night, and mistaking James Renfro for another young man, began to abuse him. Renfro struck Chinn with his fist.

Chinn struck Renfro several times and succeeded in pulling a pistol from his pocket, and as he did so pulled a pistol with it. Bystanders interfered. Renfro, who had a gun, was also arrested.

JOB FROM GROUT FOR CURRY.

Who Tried to Take a Tammany District Leadership Away From McMahon.

Comptroller Grout has appointed to a place in the Finance Department John P. Curry, who at the last primaries nearly ousted the Tammany leadership of the Seventeenth district from Daniel F. McMahon.

Some Manhattan Democrats were disappointed last night to see in this beginning of an effort on the part of Senator Patrick H. McCarren to capture the district from the Tammany leadership of the Seventeenth district from Daniel F. McMahon.

WON'T TAKE OUT ROOTS.

Forty Tenderloin Saloon Keepers Decide to Test Rains Law Requirement.

THE GAMBLERS RUN

Jerome Nets Lou Ludlum, and McAdoo Starts In.

Capt. Cottrell Was Able to Subpoena Ludlum in a Hurry, and Lou Had to Tell Where He Had Hidden the Savoy's Outfit of Apparatus and Deliver It Up.

SCARE FOR THE POOLROOMS

Customers to Be Made to Testify Under the Lewisohn Law.

Lou Ludlum took a seat yesterday with Honest John Kelly on District Attorney Jerome's band wagon for gamblers. Lou went to the District Attorney's office under subpoena, and after confessing that he was a common gambler, admitted that he had run the "Savoy" gambling house at 145 West Fourth street for five years. All the apparatus used there, which had been moved out over night, was seized and taken to the District Attorney's office.

Mr. Jerome has received information that other gamblers have moved their tools of trade out of their houses and put them in storage. Mr. Jerome knew that Ludlum had "taken it all over" before Lou got to the District Attorney's office yesterday morning and told. What happened to Honest John was warning to most of the well known gamblers of what they might expect, and Wednesday night was Moving Day. A number of them, it was said yesterday, had notified their friends that they had made up their minds to test the waters of the Hot Springs and other winter resorts. Some of them have gone to Jersey.

"Jerome has the goods on us and he has us running," said one of the tribe yesterday. "When Ludlum gives up, it is good-by to the rest of the boys. Every one is asking who is next. Maybe it's Davey Johnson or Phil Daly. Davey is about due for a call on Jerome, and he will have a hard session. He will have to explain his friendship with a well known police inspector and what they hold so many confidential calls about."

He is expecting a call like the rest of the tribe, and he is all over. Outside of Canfield, Johnson has been the most powerful gambler in the city. He has never been raided and his pull is sure most powerful. "Another man who is in for an interesting session with Jerome is Shang Draper. If he squeals he will make a lot of men in the city. He is a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang's old place in Twenty-eighth street was the distributing place for graft. There is where all the gambling money was sent on the first of every month, and Shang knows who got it and where it was sent from his home. Shang also has a police inspector and he is a gambler. For years Shang